

Please do not alter/weaken Indiana's "do not call" system.
The ability of telemarketers to intrude via my phone is no different than being forced to allow every salesperson knocking on my door to come in and sell me something. Additionally, I NEVER buy from anyone using such tactics.
Thank you,
Steve